REQUESTS FOR COMPETITION

FOR THE IV WATER AND LIFE INTERNATIONAL ART BIENNALE

*„The water is the element that connects, unites and keeps together the parts of the world.”
(Béla Hamvas)*

I. The biennial aims to provide every two years a review of the water and life-themed works of the Danube countries.

The natural environment defined by the Danube, the region's history, culture and artistic traditions of Baja, predestine the city to be the home of the biennial. The city which lies at the midpoint of the Danube is one of the most important ancient cities in the southern region of the river which interconnects several countries.

II. Applications can be accepted from Germany, Austria, Slovakia, Hungary, Croatia, Serbia, Romania, Bulgaria, Moldova and Ukraine, in a free hand in system, without genre or technical constraints in the following categories:

- painting
- graphics
- sculpture

The artwork may not be prepared before 2011. You can apply to the competition with the digital photograph of your work by October 04, 2013, at vizeselet@ejf.hu. A professional jury will select the artworks to be exhibited based on the digital photographs. Each artist can apply with three works.

III. The dimensions of the artworks:

- Flat-type units: max. 120 x 100 cm (max. 12000 cm²);
- Sculpture -type units: max. 1 m³ and 50 kg.

Parameters of the artwork's photograph: resolution of 72 x 72 dpi, picture size of 1200 x 1200 pixel, color depth of 24 bit/pixel, max. 0,5 MB file size, file type: JPG.

Please indicate the following data next to the pictures: creator, title of the work, size and technique, the year of the creation. As for the three-dimensional works, please hand in two to three photographs from representative angles.

IV. Deadlines

The deadline for submitting the photographs is October 04, 2013.

Information about the jury's decision will be posted on www.ejf.hu, from October 09, 2013.
